

Caitlin Sly is the Executive Director of Meals on Wheels Diablo Region. She joined the organization in January 2020 and brings over 10 years of extensive experience of anti-hunger work with an understanding of the food insecurity many seniors face. She previously served as Program Director at the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano. Caitlin also served as the Board President of the Concord Chamber of Commerce and continues to sit on their board as well as the board of the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau and Meals on Wheels California.