Child Advocates of Contra Costa County Wish List

At Child Advocates of Contra Costa County, our greatest resource is people — our dedicated CASA Volunteers and the children in foster care and in the juvenile justice system they serve. While we don't need a lot of 'things,' there are many resources that would help us deepen our impact.

Support for Our CASA Volunteers

- Background check fees for new volunteers
- Gift cards to alleviate financial burden of CASA visits (Wishlist)
- Educational software licenses for academic subjects across the curriculum

Enrichment for Youth

- Gift cards for birthdays, graduations, or special needs (Target, Amazon, grocery)
- Tickets or passes to local museums, theater performances, or sporting events
- Games, puzzles, and art supplies for CASA visits

Strengthening Our Programs

- on the go printing or document scanning
- Marketing material to develop outreach tools that share the stories of the youth we serve, inspiring more people to get involved as donors and volunteers.
- Photography or videography services to share our stories
- Website accessibility upgrades and Spanish translation for our brochures/flyers

Experience-Based Gifts

- Sponsor a CASA Volunteer – fund a year of advocacy for one child
- Sponsor a Training Class – support the recruitment and training of 20 new volunteers
- Youth Enrichment Fund – provide opportunities for sports, music lessons, or prom
- Professional Expertise – donate services in legal, marketing, IT, or data analysis
